days ago about the rough start of the Alden Besse was retold with more particulars of the northwester by Captain Potter yesterday on the arrival of the vessel, "We 23 at noon. Before crossing the har :

sailed from Sun Francisco September heavy westerly gale struck us and we found on reaching the bar that it was brooking in a dangerous manner. Three seas struck and boarded the vessel. The cargo was shifted and the vessel sent on her beam ends. We were obliged to energy sail to fetch by, enusing a loss sails and various articles on the deck. Luckily, no damage to the vessel was done. On the way down we and a heavy list until about two days sail from the islands. It was at this time that we got a southerly gale. We put sail to the other side. This shifted the cargo back to some extent, only leaving a 6 per cent list."

Alameda's Fast Trip.

The steamer Alameda, which arrived here yesterday shortly after 2 p. m. would have arrived much earlier had she not been detained at Apia discharging a lot of freight from the Colonies. She left Sydney September 26 at 1 p. m. an 1 Anekland October 1 at a noon. From Apin she made a quick passage to this Dr. J. Holland, M.
